

Week 1

English:
Use of drama to role-play bullying situations

Science:
Study digestive system

PSHE:
Children consider what bullying means

English:
Children respond to carefully selected quotes from book

Art:
Create digestive system in paper mache

Week 2

English:
Create character profiles from book

English:
Turn simple sentences from book into expanded noun phrases

PSHE:
Standing up to bullies

History:
How has Downham Market changed over the years?

Science:
How long do different types of food take to digest?

Visit to Downham Heritage Centre

English:
Discuss how character's thoughts have changed

English:
Consider various characters' differing points of view at specific times in the story

English:
Conventions of an informal letter

Science:
Different types of teeth and their functions

Geography:
Study Ordnance Survey maps of Downham Market from past years

Week 3

Book: The Angel of Nitshill
Author: Anne Fine
Genre: Fiction

Week 4

English:
Recap features of a non-fiction text and revisit conventions of a playscript

Science:
Draw diagrams of teeth

Geography:
Identify countries animals come from

Geography:
Study volcanoes

DT:
Make a model volcano that can erupt

PSHE:
Design anti-bullying poster

English:
Discuss effectiveness of anti-bullying poster and the role of 'persuasion'

English:
Invent incident to record in the 'Book of Deeds' from the story

English:
Plan, draft and write own narrative

English:
Write similes, taking examples from the book, to describe animals from around the world

Geography:
Draw and label volcano

Week 5

Science:
Use a kettle and steam to experience condensation and evaporation in order to illustrate the water cycle

English:
Share examples of diary entries

Geography:
Draw a simple map of Downham Market containing a key

History:
Create a timeline of Downham Market's history

English:
Place sections of Marigold's diary in order

Week 6