

Week 1

PSHE: Relationships
and feelings

English:
Decipher feelings
and portray
relationships through descriptive writing

Art:
Black and white class
montage to represent
belonging and identity

Geography:
Mapwork –
locating places
around the world and
methods of travelling

Geography:
Focus on the Amazon –
make comparisons and
note differences with UK

Science:
Study animals native
to the Amazon
and consider how they've
adapted to live
in that climate

English:
Diary entry from Father's point
of view

Week 2

Science:
Preventing viruses
spreading –
create poster
for new arrivals

PSHE:
Feeling isolated and
alone – finding it difficult to communicate
with others

English: Journalistic writing –
newspaper report

Week 3

Science:
Classifying animals

English:
Journalistic writing –
write a newspaper
report about
the new arrivals

History:
Looking at the first civilisations and what
made them successful;
Begin to focus
on Ancient Egypt

Book: The Arrival

Author: Sean Tan

Genre: Fiction/Picture Book

Week 4

Geography:
Land use in the Amazon and conservation

Geography:
Geographical influences
on food within different cultures. Study of Switzerland's economy
and trade
within Europe

PSHE:
Refugees and immigration
– why are people forced
from their homeland?
Return to loneliness and
building relationships
and friendships

Art:
Making
origami animals

Science:
Animal
classification

Science:
Investigate how viruses and
bacteria spread

Science:
Adaptation- how animals have adapted to life in the Amazon –
link to how Father is adapting to life in the new place in
'The Arrival'

History:
Ancient Egypt

English:
Journalistic writing –
newspaper report

Week 5

Week 6